

Racial Intelligence Training

Right for Title IX

RITE brings an added mindfulness on sexual assault, harassment, hazing, and bullying. RITE's Racial Intelligence for leaders, staff, and students, focuses on Emotional Intelligence; learning to treat yourself fairly, as well as others.

WHAT MAKES RITE UNIQUE?

Our take-away tools attendees use at work and home separate us from one-and-done courses. Participants learn lessons they'll want to share with their co-workers, family, and friends.

RITE has enriched the lives of numerous employees, staff, and students. Bringing a fun refreshing method, we leave participants energized and inspired. Surveys show 80% of participants enjoyed RITE, and that it helped them at home and work, as well as improved communication with others.

THE RITE APPROACH!

Racial Intelligence is to treat Yourself (EI) and Others (SI) in a fair, unbiased, ethical manner (RI). The RITE Model = Emotional Intelligence (EI) + Social Intelligence (SI) = Racial Intelligence (RITE) Doing the Right thing, starts with RITE Training!

Class participants have told us after RITE training... "This is the first time a training class has helped me personally as well as professionally."
