

Professional Workplace Culture Training

RITE's Workplace Training is nationally recognized in encouraging a bias-free workplace. Our classes include a unique combination of emotional intelligence skill-building, that includes years of research to give your employees a sole-source experience that can not be duplicated.

Teaching components that reinforce your company's values of having a professional bias-free workplace culture for all employees is our goal. Each class includes Emotional Intelligence Tools your employees learn from and use in class with each other, and well after we are gone.

Workplace Culture Breakdowns include:

- Unprofessional Behavior
- Elements of Entitlement
- Mental Looping and Negative Banter
- Implicit Bias and Hot Buttons
- Rumors and Gossip

WHAT MAKES RITE UNIQUE?

RITE take-away Tools (like the Awareness Ladder) are for employees to use and share with others, at home and work. Doing the RITE Thing, becomes a company message that says, "We are a bias-free environment with zero tolerance for unprofessional work-place behavior."

Reinforce the company culture of treating everyone fairly, in a professional manner. Learning to Value others, is key to building a professional workplace culture.
