

Professional Workplace Training

RITE Classes include a blend of emotional and social intelligence skill-building lessons for improved mental health and well-being. Since 2015, RITE classes deliver years of research to give your employees a sole-source experience that can not be duplicated. Over 1200 public service agencies, 975 RITE Trainers, and more than 550,000 RITE tools have been given out to employees.

Cognitive Imprinting Tools reinforce agency accountability, from top Leadership to Academy recruits. RITE Leadership Classes help strengthen a professional workplace for all employees. Each participant receives a RITE Kit filled with Tools they'll use in class and beyond. We take Public Safety Wellness to a holistic level, improving lives personally and professionally.

Training discussions include:

- Mental Looping, Negative Banter, Entitlement
- Learn how Hot Buttons lead to Block-out
- Mental Health and Wellness, Peer group, CIT
- RITE Response: Step-in, Tap-out, Take-over
- Leadership Tools and Exercises
